TASTING

Fuchsia pink colour

A floral nose of rose and crushed strawberries.

A fresh palate with notes of bramble and rhubarb. The grain of tannin holds the wine in the mouth and gives it that lovely aromatic persistence.

VINIFICATION

This wine is made by cold carbonic maceration of the 3 grape varieties.

After 5 to 8 days of maceration, the grapes are decanted and pressed to complete the alcoholic fermentation using indigenous yeasts.

Malolactic fermentation continues in vats.
